

Exploratory Test(Sharetrip website)

Traveller:

- It is a required field
- It is a dropdown menu containing four options: adult, children, kids, infants
- Each of the option's count can be increased or decreased by "+", "-" buttons
- By default, adult count is 1
- Highest 7 adults can be selected
- Maximum 14 travellers can be selected(7 adult,7 infant)
- When adult count is 7 which is highest then children and kids option becomes freeze
- When adult count is 7 then infant option's count can be increased by highest 7
- If infant option is not selected, then highest 7 travellers can be selected by the combination of adult,children and kid options
- If 1 traveller is selected from 3 options, then max 5 traveller can be selected from the remaining option
- If only 1 kid is selected, then the rest 3 option's count can be maximum 3
- Maximum 6 children can be selected if number of kid is 0 and 1 infant is selected

Class(Economy, Premium economy, business, first class) :

- It is a radio button containing 4 field
- User can choose either Economy, Premium economy, business, first class
- By default, economy is selected
- It is a required field
- User can choose only one class among 4 even if it is round trip or multi city

Oneway:

- This option works when a person wants to just travel from one city to another

Destination/Departure place:

- It is a required field
- It accepts only alpha characters
- By default the starting place is Dhaka and destination is Cox's Bazar
- Partial search is available(Minimum for 1 letter)
- It can take same place as Departure and Destination Airport
- A three letter code is visible along with the city upon searching(for example for Dhaka DAC, for NewYork JFK)
- The country name along with the Airport name is also shown upon searching for a city
- After setting the destination and departure city, we can also swap it
- If a city is searched which is not in the list , it automatically sets the place as the default place name(departure-Dhaka, Destination-Cox's bazar)

Date:

- For one way, by default current date's next day is selected
- We can also choose current date
- There is no limit for for maximum date(for return date)

- Previous date can't be selected
- It is a required field

Round Trip:

- This option is applicable when the user wants to travel and also come back to the departure city

Destination/Departure place:

- It is a required field
- It accepts only alpha characters
- By default the starting place is Dhaka and destination is Cox's Bazar
- Partial search is available(Minimum for 1 letter)
- It can take same place as Departure and Destination Airport
- A three letter code is visible along with the city upon searching(for example for Dhaka DAC, for NewYork JFK)
- The country name along with the Airport name is also shown upon searching for a city
- After setting the destination and departure city, we can also swap it
- If a city is searched which is not in the list , it automatically sets the place as the default place name(departure-Dhaka, Destination-Cox's bazar)

Date:

- It is a required field
- Date format is date-month-year
- For round trip, by default departure date is set as current date's next day and return date is selected two days later
- We can also choose current date for departure
- There is no limit for for maximum date(for return date)
- Previous date can't be selected

Multicity:

- This option is applicable when user wants to travel multiple cities
- Maximum 5 cities can be selected
- Minimum 2 cities need to be selected
- From the default set cities, it is seen that the first trip's destination city is the departure city of the next trip and so on and so forth
- The default date gap between the default 5 trips are 1,2,2,2 days respectively
- User can select departure cities for multiple trips
- User can select destination cities for multiple trips
- User can select date of return from each trips
- After adding cities, user can also delete any trip if the number is greater than 3

Destination/Departure place:

- It is a required field

- It accepts only alpha characters
- By default the starting place is Dhaka and destination is Cox's Bazar
- Partial search is available(Minimum for 1 letter)
- It can take same place as Departure and Destination Airport
- A three letter code is visible along with the city upon searching(for example for Dhaka DAC, for NewYork JFK)
- The country name along with the Airport name is also shown upon searching for a city
- After setting the destination and departure city, we can also swap it
- If a city is searched which is not in the list , it automatically sets the place as the default place name(departure-Dhaka, Destination-Cox's bazar)

Date:

- It is a required field
- Date format is date-month-year
- The first city's travel date is by default set as current date's next day and second city's travel date is set as date is selected two days later
- We can also choose current date for departure
- There is no limit for for maximum date(for return date)
- Previous date can't be selected

Most Popular Airlines:

- All the popular airlines flight can be booked from this option
- There are 12 top airlines options available which are : Biman Bangladesh, Us Bangla, NovoAir, Airstra, Emirates, Singapore Airlines, Turkish Airlines, Qatar Airways, Malaysia Airlines, Vistara, Etihad Airways, Cathay Pacific Airways
- Upon selecting any of the airlines,a user can search for available flights on the selected airlines
- A user can choose oneway, roundtrip or multicity
- User can select Destination and departure city
- User can choose date of return
- User can choose traveller number
- User can choose class of the flights
- User can customise his/her flight requirements(Like price, departure, airlines,refundability)
- User can see popular destination on the selected airlines

